

WCA Individual Membership Information

Who can become a member of World Cement Association? Membership is open to companies, not-for-profit organisations, and individuals with a stake in the future of cement, clinker and related materials.

Individual members: Any of the WCA company type members can apply for additional individual members for their personnel. Other applicants may be eligible for individual membership provided their organisation could not otherwise fit the requirements above, for example technical consultants. We also invite individual membership applications from academic or industry professionals.

Join a global community:

- meeting and networking opportunities - virtual and hybrid
- participate in WCA members' Professional Committees and networks
- discounted tickets to WCA events, open days, conferences
- shared best practice, information, and resources
- be part of the WCA Member Community. The WCA Member Community platform (powered by Glue Up) has been developed as a unique space to set up member's individual profile and to share ideas with fellow WCA members. The platform provides a variety of opportunities where you can: manage your membership; access priority registration to our virtual and in-person events; participate in our professional committees and networks; network with other WCA members; and more.

Get the latest industry information and be at the cutting edge:

- access to members-only virtual technical forums, in which relevant managers from member companies can share experience on a specific topic, learn from experts and see new technology in action.
- opportunities to learn about new technologies and assess the related prospects at a very early stage in their development, helping members to stay a step ahead of the competition.
- access to WCA webinars and podcasts, briefings, news, and information.
- access to the members-only area of our website with technical reports, meeting minutes and presentations
- opportunities to contribute to interviews, articles, podcasts and other trade media - representation of members, and a chance for members to participate in international forums, platforms, and events
- opportunities to attend WCA partner events.

Be a part of change:

- WCA works together with its members to support a sustainable cement industry and encourages technical development and other steps to achieve full decarbonisation.
